PERSONAL ITEMS.

What People are Doing in and Out of Roanoke.

Licensed to wed were granted yesterday from the clerk's office to John Meadows and Miss Eddie Dainwood, and also to Dr. Jefferson Kinney and Miss Lizzie Alice Duersen.

Wreck car 4498 has been turned over to the Shenandoah Valley for service.

Fred. G. Bennett left last night for his home in Camden, where he will spend the Christmas holidays.

M. V. B. Webb, late assistant secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association of this city, but for the last four months a student at Randolph-Macon Academy, Bedford City, is home for the holidays.

Miss Ella, daughter of Captain J. H. Trent, who is attending the Female State Normal school at Farmville, returned home yesterday evening to spend the holiday vacation.

Capt. J. H. Hanckel, who left some time ago with his brother for Florida, in the hope that the trip might restore the latter's health, returned to the city yesterday evening to spend the holidays.

Miss Emma Howard Wright and Miss Bertha Von Hillern are at Hotel Roanoke.

Mrs. W. W. Coe will leave the city tomorrow for her former home at Charlestown, W. Va., where she will spend the holidays.

Jno. P. Pettyjohn, of Lynchburg, was in the city for a few hours yesterday. He is pushing rapidly forward the Baptist Church building.

Miss Robertson, who has been the guest of the Misses Heckaday for the past month, returned yesterday morning to her home in Richmond, much to the regret of her numerous friends made during her visit to the "Magic City."

Alleghany Institute has suspended for the holidays and will reopen on the first Monday in January.

THE TIMES receives and prints daily five times as much telegraphic news as any other paper in Roanoke.

About the Y. M. C. A.

The closing character talk (of the recent series which has proven so interesting) will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the rooms of the association over THE TIMES office. Dr. Flippo will talk about Jezebel, the wife of Ahab. All men are invited.

Come up to the rooms and try a game of "Fiddledy Winks."

The ladies are moving. Look out for the new rooms after they finish with them.

A chess club will probably be organized in the association during January. It is hoped that two hundred ladies will join the Ladies' Auxiliary at once. The annual dues are only $1.00. No demand worth mentioning will be made upon them.

Do not place your orders for blank books for 1891 until after you have examined our work and prices. Hammond's Printing Works and Book Bindery, 110 Jefferson street; telephone 428.
